Affiliate Membership

Take Advantage of the Benefits!

As an Affiliate member of the REALTORS® organization, you'll be part of the best and most extensive network of real estate professionals, both locally and statewide. You will have valuable access and contacts with a wide range of real estate professionals including real estate agents and brokers, as well as other REALTOR® members, including lenders, title companies, home inspectors, appraisers, developers, builders, engineers, painters, electricians, property managers, and home stagers. These contacts will augment your promotion and advertising dollars.

Becoming an affiliate member is easy and cost effective. While affiliate memberships are individual (ie: not corporate), only one individual per company needs to join both the state and local associations (and realize the related benefits from the state association). All other individuals from that firm who want to become affiliate members need only join the local board. Find out more by contacting your local board of REALTORS®.

Industry Publications

Your Affiliate Membership brings you a wide variety of value-added publications delivered to you each month. As an Affiliate member, you'll receive the WRA's monthly Wisconsin Real Estate Magazine, the monthly Legal Update, the WRA Newswire, Weekly Legal Hottips and more.
